

Lower and upper solutions for even order boundary value problems

Lucía López-Somoza

Universidade de Santiago de Compostela

lucia.lopez.somoza@usc.es

We will prove the existence of solutions of nonlinear boundary value problems of arbitrary even order using the lower and upper solutions method. In particular, we will show that the existence of a pair of lower and upper solutions of a considered problem could imply the existence of solution of another one with different boundary conditions.